What is DISCOVER Voices?

We amplify the voices of people living with a long term health condition or disability, their families and carers in Cornwall & Isles of Scilly. We serve as the media voice for disabled people's organisation disAbility Cornwall & Isles of Scilly.

We share real-life stories, expert insights and practical guidance. From navigating direct payments to advocating for accessibility, our content empowers and informs.

Sky's No Limit | Travelling with a Disability

Our Content

DISCOVER Voices has a growing podcast network and produce documentaries and short form videos showcasing Cornwall's thriving voluntary sector with a focus on disability rights and closely intersecting causes.

We have collaborated with countless organisations around Cornwall including NHS Cornwall & Isles of Scilly, Cornwall Council, Kresen Kernow and Man Down.

Become our Network Partner

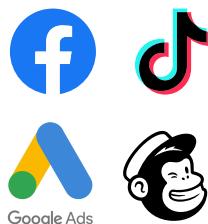

Your brand, our platform.

Gain consistent brand exposure on our channels plus more with our 3-Month Network Sponsorship Package.

This package gives your organisation visibility across every DISCOVER Voices podcast series and video, and disAbility Cornwall social media post and newsletter promotion over a 3-month period. Ideal for brands committed to equity, inclusion and lived experience.

Your brand in every podcast episode: 30–60 sec ad read in all episodes published during the sponsorship period (across all podcast series), and sponsor tag in all video and podcast descriptions.

Cross-platform promotion: inclusion in all podcast social media posts and placement in email newsletters.

Your branding will also feature on a co-branded landing page on our website that promotes DISCOVER voices, designed as part of a Google Search Ad Campaign funded by the Google Ad Grants programme.

Cross-platform promotion will help raise awareness of your organisation to new audiences searching on our social media, email & Google channels — while staying fully compliant with each platform's advertising policies.

Branded print materials: a professionally designed flyer and business card featuring your organisation and values, created by our marketing team for local visibility and event use.
